National Anthem

The Star-Spangled Banner

O say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bomb bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there,
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Thank You for Serving

By Michael Yaccarino

On your hardest day and coldest night
While lying there before the fight
Let us be your guiding light
Thank You for Serving

For all the fallen and all the rest
Know in your heart you are the best
In the struggle for freedoms plight
Thank You for Serving

From valleys and hills across the land
We stand proud to sing this song
In our hearts we believe in you
Thank You for Serving

All that have served they understand
Honor and duty is the strength of a man
Protecting freedom and our land
Thank You for Serving

While all alone on the darkest night
A band of brothers caught in the fight
In our prayers that's where you'll be
Thank You for Serving

They serve our country for you and me
Fighting terror and tyranny
Made of iron with golden hearts
Thank You for Serving
